Bullish sentiment

VN30 performance

The VN30Index rose for a third consecutive session, gaining 2.01% to close at 1,886 points. Twenty-eight constituent stocks recovered, led by VRE (+6.81%), VHM (+5.64%), BID (+5.08%), MWG (+4.96%) and SHB (+4.91%). In addition, 14 stocks advanced by more than 2%. On the other side, selling pressure remained on VJC (-1.04%).

VN30 Future chart: Bullish sentiment

Market sentiment stayed positive with the formation of a third long-bodied green candle. The contract also broke above the 10- and 20-period moving averages, an important short-term buy signal. The uptrend may therefore be confirmed over the short term.

However, the gains recorded in recent sessions were relatively large, and volume did not increase correspondingly. A consolidation phase may therefore emerge in the sessions ahead.

Notably, the contract still closed below key moving averages such as the 50- and 100-period lines. Investors should therefore wait for a suitable moment before opening new positions.

In the next session, the 1,800-point level should act as strong short-term support, while the 1,900-1,920 point zone should serve as strong resistance.

Technical strategy

A short-term pullback may occur given the relatively large gains of recent sessions. Traders should therefore wait for a consolidation phase before opening new positions.
